Special December Programs

Adult Craft: Needle Felted Holiday Ornaments
Thursday, Dec. 1, 6:00 pm
Back by Popular Demand! Instructor Sally Ziegler will return to The Community Library for a program showing us how to make needle felted holiday ornaments. Free program, all supplies provided, open to anyone over 18 years old regardless of previous experience. Space is limited; register online at https://bit.ly/NeedleFeltingDec2022

Holiday Paper Crafts
Saturday, Dec. 2, 11:00 am
Get in the winter holiday spirit with paper crafts at the Community Library! Make simple decorations like paper chains and snowflakes, challenge yourself with Scandinavian paper hearts and origami boxes, or make greeting cards for loved ones. You can learn techniques from our librarians or get creative with your own designs. Open to all ages; no registration required

Book Talk with Local Author Chris Keefer
Thursday Dec. 8, 6:00 pm
We're pleased to welcome local author Chris Keefer for a discussion of her recently-released book, No Comfort for the Undertaker--the first in a new historical mystery series published by Level Best Books. The author will make a brief presentation about the book, read some selections, answer audience questions, and sign copies for interested readers.*

Teen Craft: Sock Snowman
Thursday, Dec. 15, 6:30-7:30 pm
Get in the winter spirit with a fun craft! Use socks, rice, and other craft supplies to make your own sweet snow-person. Registration is required, and all supplies are provided. Open to grades 6-12 (ages 11-18).

Winter Holiday Storytime
Saturday, Dec. 17, 10:30-11:30 am
Join us for a special Saturday Storytime, all about the major winter holidays celebrated in our community. We'll read stories about Hannukkah, Christmas, and Kwanzaa, sing songs, and throw in extra fun activities and a craft at the end. While the core age group for our storytimes is 2-5, older and younger children are encouraged to attend with their caregivers. No registration necessary.

*This event is funded in part by Poets & Writers with public funds from the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature. Sponsored by The Community Library and Poets & Writers, Inc.

Recurring Programs

Adult Gaming Club: Every 1st & 3rd Tuesday at 6 pm
Adult Gamers interested in role-playing games and board games are invited to gather at the library for fun and games with other game fans. Meet new people, try new games.

Fan Favorites Book Club: 1st Fridays at 12 noon
Join us for our casual conversation about what we're reading, watching, and listening to lately. No assigned readings; just book-lovers sharing what they love.

Short Fiction Workshop: 2nd & 4th Tuesdays at 6 pm
This workshop for teens & adults features writing prompts, exercises, and constructive feedback sessions for authors writing short fiction.

Storytime: Wednesdays at 10:30 am
Our regularly-scheduled Storytime features stories, songs, and fun activities led by Miss Courtney at the library.

All Ages Craft Buffet!: Tuesday, Dec.13, 4:00 pm
All ages are invited to join us for open craft time. We'll provide craft supplies and snacks. Come let your imagination inspire you to create whatever you choose!

Teen Advisory Board Meeting:
Thursday, Dec. 15th 5:30-6:30 pm
At our monthly meetings, members will help us choose teen books, plan teen programs, and make our teen zone a welcoming space. Snacks provided. Open to 8th-12th graders (age 13-18).

Paws for Reading
Friday, Dec. 16, 4:00-5:00pm
Stop by the library to read to our favorite therapy dog, Nico! Nico loves to meet patrons of all ages, but he especially enjoys hearing kids practice their reading. Open to all ages. No registration necessary.

LEGO Club: Every 1st and 3rd Wednesday 3:30 - 4:45 pm
LEGO Club is back for the school year with an adjusted time to reflect new school schedules. We've got the LEGO, just bring your imagination! Each session we'll have a different building theme, but you can build anything that inspires you. Open to kids in grades K-8.
